Album: Psalms of Ascent

Written by: Brayden Waller

Key: E

---

E                      A
Lord, my heart is not haughty, Nor my eyes lofty.

E    C#m
Neither do I exercise myself with great matters,

A
Nor with things too high for me.

B                      E                      A                      E
Surely I have behaved and quieted my soul,

E                      A                      B
Surely I have behaved and quieted my soul,

E    C#m
Like a child weaned of his mother;

A
my soul even as a weaned child

B                      E                      A                      E
Surely I have behaved and quieted my soul

E    C#m
O Israel, hope in the Lord

A                      E
From this time even forever.
