Album: Extravagant Love
Written by: Brayden Waller
Key: E

Verse 1

E
As in the days of Noah

B
so will the coming of the Son of man be

E B C#m
Those in the flood were caught not expecting what came

A
So it will be the same.

E B
As lawlessness increases and the love of many grows cold

C#m A
Will we still be faithful no matter how unpopular the road

Chorus

E B
Even if Noah Daniel, Noah Daniel and Job were in it

A C#m B
They would only save themselves by their righteousness

E B
So teach your sons and daughters the truth
so they will know

A C#m B
How to stand in a wicked generation on their own.

Verse 2

E B
What was familiar was suddenly shattered by war

E B
But he would not surrender the faith deep in his core

C#m A
Even when threatened with the lions den

E B
He would not stop praying facing Zion's hill cause prayer brings

C#m A
the breakthrough into the fullness of God's will

Verse 3

E B
Pain is the etching marked deep in his face

E B
Bewildered by the God watching his fate

C#m A
And loss what could be the cause

E B
And as Job's friends try to help him but fail to do a good job

C#m
He holds to his confession that one day

A
he will see the living God

E B A
So the conclusion of this matter is do not follow the crowd

C#m B E
to the pit called status quo where Noah's neighbors drowned.
