G Am D

Verse 1

Em C Shockwaves resounded through the room

Am Bm C D
as she knelt and poured out the costly perfume.

Em D C D
Some were astounded and some were disgusted

Am Bm C D
but she unaware was completely invested

C D G in the one she trusted.

Em C
Your head was covered with the oil

Am Bm C D
befitting a king so exalted and royal.

Em D C D
Though You were humbled upon a tree

Am Bm C D
the fragrance of spikenard would never leave

C D G
Reminding constantly

Chorus

G D C
That it's true that extravagant love is quick to become

Em D poured out in worship to You

G D C
As an all consuming desire forged in the fire

D G
of counting the cost and answering the call.

Verse 2

Em C
New life is given to the ones

Am Bm C D
That have yielded their lives for Your will to be done.

Em D C D
There is no measure of status or wealth

Am Bm C D
that compares to the treasure above all else,

C D G
The gift of Yourself.

Chorus

G D C
That it's true that extravagant love is quick to become

Em D
poured out in worship to You

G D C
As an all consuming desire forged in the fire

D
of counting the cost (x3)

G
and answering the call.
