Verse 1

E Buried underneath a pile of rubble a lot of
C#m wood hay and stubble

A trying to choke the light out of my life
B

E Then I heard a voice above the ground calling
C#m me to take a look around

A Heaven opened up and the Word of God
E came down
B

C#m When I heard the news it was like music to
B my ears
A

C#m Now I know the truth and it's not just a theory
B it's a deep down knowing
A

Chorus

A God is good right now right here.

E God's so good early at the sun rise

B God's so good even in the night time

C#m He knows my every need and hears me when
A I call

B so I'm not going to worry at all
E

Verse 2

E There's a hope that never disappoints.
C#m Through the Holy Spirit God anoints

A our hearts to live in joyful peace
B

E And when the night comes we will trust that
C#m we are chosen and beloved

A by the mighty One who came to set us free
E B

C#m When I see Him there hanging on that tree
B A

C#m I am made aware that the goodness of God
B A

reaches far beyond what I could ever dream

Bridge

A I'm not going to worry about tomorrow
B
